YOU, AN EXTRAORDINARY MINISTER OF HOLY COMMUNION?

It might be a time for you to consider becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. Exercising a ministry can be a way to deepen your appreciation of the sacrament. If you attend Mass every Sunday, have a true devotion to the Eucharist, have been Confirmed, and if married, married in the Church, you may exercise this ministry. We especially invite young people beginning high school. Exercising this ministry will be a special grace to you and to the parish. If you are interested please email Fr. Mike (mpucke@stjulie.net) or call him. The training session will be held at 7:00pm on Tuesday, May 13 in the Church.

YOU, A LECTOR AT SUNDAY MASS?

Are you interested but uncertain if this ministry is appropriate for you? Naturally, you participate in Mass every Sunday for love of the Eucharist. The training for this ministry consists of a "class" and, then, a practice session. During the practice every participant will have the opportunity to give and receive feedback about his/her proclamation of the scriptures. If you are interested please email Fr. Mike (mpucke@stjulie.net) or call him. The training sessions will be scheduled soon.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Happy Mothers Day! This is a day to pray for mothers living and deceased; married, single, and widowed; birth mothers and adoptive mothers; and women yearning to be mother.

Next Sunday Archbishop Schnurr will ordain Brian Phelps and James Riehle to the priesthood. We will begin praying the Archdiocesan prayer for vocations at many Sunday Masses because in the years to come, as in the past decades, the number being ordained falls far short of the number of priests retiring or dying. While after retirement priests continue to help out on Sundays, they are not available for all the other things pastors do.

You might wonder what all does a pastor do. I'd break down my responsibilities into:

- Preparing to preach and teach (the decree on Priestly Ministry of Vatican II says that is the priest's most important responsibility.) Even for an experienced homilist it requires preparation to keep preaching fresh and dynamic.
- Liturgical responsibilities (I frequently have all four Sunday Masses plus Reconciliation and often a Saturday wedding and/or funeral. Weekday Mass is actually for my own spiritual benefit as much as for the assembly. We average 40+ funerals a year.)
- Counseling, marriage preparation, visits to the sick and jailed, and other one-on-one sessions and phone calls
- Leadership of a parish: Giving direction and coordination to the work of both paid staff and volunteers.
Significant time in complying with Archdiocesan requirements.
- Financial and facilities oversight: $850,000 parish budget with five full-time and two part-time employees, two cemeteries with their four employees. (While we are blessed to have good professional and support staff, the pastor is ultimately responsible and, so, must be aware.) Representing the Parish to the broader public through meetings, boards etc.

When I retire, one priest will be assigned as pastor for the three parishes. It is clear that, not matter how energetic and efficient, one priest will not be able to "do it all." Each parish will have to decide how it will continue some of the work pastors now do that others can do. This has implications for staffing and, therefore, finances.

But, no matter what, we will continue to pray for vocations.

Second in a series of what our Faith Community can do to minister to those with mental illness and their families.

Many people with mental illness are in recovery and lead normal lives. Due to the stigma associated with mental illness, you and I are probably not aware of their illness.

They are not likely to tell anyone at work or in the neighborhood that they have a major mental illness. Others with mental illness are able to work but at times find the disease debilitating. Tragically, they might have health insurance while they can work and not need it and have no health insurance when they cannot work and are in need of it. Others will never be able to work and have to rely on public assistance and programs to help them throughout their life. Still others find themselves in a constant cycle of crisis due to no insurance or inadequate or inconsistent systems of mental health care. As a faith community we can make a difference in people's lives by being accepting of their illness, comforting them in time of crisis, supporting them when needed, and assisting them in their search for mental health services.

What is a DEACON?

A permanent deacon is a man ordained - like a bishop or priest - to serve as Christ Jesus who "came not to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many" (Mark 10:45). The word deacon comes from the Greek word for service: diakonia. WHAT QUALIFIES a man to be a Permanent Deacon? Prayer, Humility, Service, Grace, Suffering, Love. A willingness to be changed and to offer his life in unpaid sacrificial service to God, to the Church, to any and all in need of God's mercy. HOW DOES a man become a DEACON?

Through a process of discernment and formation that takes about four or five years. If a man is married, his wife and family must also come to embrace the joys and demands of having a husband and father who is a deacon.
