PASTOR'S CORNER

Several weeks ago in this space I introduced the "Interfaith Hospitality Network", also called "Family Promise". This is a faith-based response to homeless families. The question is, "Should St. Julie Billiart Parish be involved and how?"

So, how does it work? Homeless families stay overnight in churches. Participating churches can either be a host site or provide volunteers and funding for the project. A national organization that has been doing this in Hamilton and Warren counties and all over the country walks the churches through the process of organizing and establishing a non-profit entity that is the coordinating body.

The program is straightforward and, at the same time, quite sophisticated. Thirteen host churches in Butler County, supported by volunteers from many other churches, would open their doors to five or six families from 6:00 pm to 6:00 am for a week at a time. The program would have a day center for adults to stay while the kids are at school or day care. The adults use the time for job search/preparation or some form of education. The day center is separate from any church. There is a two-page insert in today's bulletin that gives a concrete picture of what happens.

How or whether we as a Parish would participate is fully dependent on the interest of all of you. I'd like to give it a good look because:

-Homelessness among families in Butler County is a serious issue.

-While we rarely have direct contact with homeless families, and this program only deals with parent(s) with children, we do have regular contact with homeless single people. As a downtown Parish, I'd like to see us have some response.

-We have facilities that go unused for most evenings.

-We are Christian

-This is far from a "done deal." The next step is to let me know if you'd be interested in exploring this possibility in one way or another. There will be a meeting to gauge interest on June 30 at 7:00 pm the First United Methodist Church down the street at 225 Ludlow.

Let me know before that date.

LA SANTISIMA TRINIDAD

LEER: Exodo 34:4-6.8-9; Salmo: Daniel 3:52-56; 2 Corintios 13:11-13; Juan 3:16-18.

¡El Dios de la Santísima Trinidad!

El Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo, ama profundamente a toda la humanidad que el mismo creo, pero que quiere compartir personalmente su amor con cada uno de sus hijos. Pese a que a menudo somos gente muy “terca”, Dios perdona nuestros pecados y nos adopta como hijos suyos.

Este amor infinito es el que comunica vida al mundo y sostiene nuestra vida; es el amor que el Señor quiere que experimentemos personalmente cada uno de nosotros.

Dios es misericordioso y generoso en extremo al prodigarnos su amor, pero al hacerlo, nos pide que lo imitemos en ese amor, es decir, que así también nos amemos nosotros.

Dios que tanto nos ama, nos capacita para amar; nos da fuerzas para superar las ofensas y calumnias contra nuestra dignidad y para invocar su poder sanador en las relaciones personales heridas o destruidas; con su amor podemos responder a todos con amor.

! Oh Santísima Trinidad! Tu eres un mar sin fondo en el que, cuanto mas me hundo, mas te encuentro; cuanto mas te encuentro mas te busco y mas te deseo. Como ansío llegar un día a contemplar la luz inefable de tu excelsa pureza y tu eterna omnipotencia.”

Bendito Y alabado sea el SEÑOR ETERNAMENTE.
